Graduated Elsinore High (Lake Elsinore, Calif.), 1966; played baseball, basketball and football. While attending high school in Placerville, Calif., in his sophomore year, he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage, believed caused by a football injury. Was out of school for six months and advised to give up sports. Moving to Lake Elsinore the next year, he pitched two high school no-hitters, struck out 16 in a seven-inning game and 23 in a nine-inning contest. As a senior he was 7-2, was named to All-California Interscholastic Federation Class A first team. Attended Riverside (Calif.) City College for one year; played baseball and received team's Man of Distinction award.

Played Pony League, Babe Ruth League and Connie Mack ball.

Signed to first contract by Jesse Flores, Minnesota Twins; was not drafted.

On July 19, 1967, he struck out nine consecutive batters in relief for St. Cloud against Duluth-Superior, Northern League; entered the game in the seventh with two on and no outs, fanned all nine men he faced to hold a 3-2 lead. Was eighth in ERA (2.70) in Northern League in 1967. In 1968 tied for Carolina League lead in wins (16) and complete games (14), was second in strikeouts (204), tied for second in shutouts (5) and was seventh in ERA (2.51). Was selected by Kansas City Royals from Minnesota in American League expansion draft, October 15, 1968. In 1970 was third in ERA (3.21) in American Association, led pitchers in putouts (21). Was traded to New York Mets for Barry Raziano, February, 1973 and re-acquired by Kansas City from New York Mets in exchange for Randy Hammon, January 9, 1976. In 1976 was named to play in American Association All-Star Game and voted Omaha's Co-Most Valuable Player by Omaha Sportscasters. In 1978 was second in saves (10) in American Association.

Married; two children. Hobbies-water skiing, bowling, golf, fishing, hunting. Uncle, Jim Rice, was an infielder with New Orleans, Columbus and Birmingham, 1951-60.

Minor League Pitching Instructor, Kansas City Royals, 1982-85.

SHELDON, Keith Stewart (Country)
Pitcher

Height - 6:02 Bats - R Born - February 5, 1964, Hiawassee, Ga.
Weight - 210 Throws - R Resides - Brasstown, North Carolina

Graduated Hayesville (N.C.) High, 1982; played baseball, basketball and football. In three years of varsity baseball, he helped lead team to second place in state once and third place twice. Considers his best performances in high school to have been a one-hitter in which he struck out 16 and walked three and a two-hitter in which he struck out 17 and walked only two. Attended DeKalb Community College South (Decatur, Ga.) for two years; played baseball. Helped pitch DeKalb South to second place in Georgia Junior College Athletic Association in 1984.

Signed to first contract by Roy Tanner, Kansas City Royals; was Kansas City's 12th selection in the January, 1985, free agent draft, regular phase. Had been drafted previously by Los Angeles Dodgers in January, 1984.

Single. Assistant baseball coach at Hayesville, N.C. High during off-season. Hobbies-swimming, playing monopoly, shooting pool, hunting, fishing. Most unusual baseball experience was "giving up a wind-blown homer that I thought was a shallow pop fly. I was almost back in the dugout when the ball went out of the park."

Weight - 175 Throws - R Resides - Wayne, Michigan

Graduated Wayne Memorial High, 1976; played baseball, basketball and football. Was All-Great Lakes Eight League selection in all three sports. Scored 40 points in one prep basketball game. Attended Eastern Michigan University (Ypsilanti, Mich.) for three years; played varsity baseball. In 1977, his freshman year, he hit .338 in 53 games with 19 stolen bases. In 1978 he batted .312 in 57 games with 17 stolen bases in helping lead Eastern Michigan to Mid-American Conference championship and a berth in NCAA Division I Mideast Regional Tournament; was named to All-Conference second team. In 1979 he was named to All-Conference and NCAA Division I All-District Four first teams and to The Sporting News' College All-America second team. Hit two consecutive homers in one collegiate game.

Played American Legion and Connie Mack ball. In 1977 he hit .378 for Adray Photo team in Detroit Amateur Baseball Federation. In 1978 he played for Kenai Peninsula Oilers in Alaska League, batted .281 in 40 games with 16 stolen bases.

Signed to first contract by Jerry Stephens, Kansas City Royals; was Kansas City's third selection in the June, 1979, free agent draft, regular phase. Had been drafted previously by Cincinnati in June, 1976.

In 1980 he was fifth in batting (.305) in Southern League. In 1981 he was on the Disabled List from May 25 to June 25 because of an elbow injury suffered when he fell on the basement steps while carring a load of laundry. In 1982 he suffered a pulled hamstring muscle during spring training; aggravated the injury in the first game of the regular season and missed ten games. Played one game, then reinjured the leg trying to beat out an infield bounder in the first inning of the next game and was on Disabled List from April 27 to June 25; in the fifth inning of his first game back in the lineup, he pulled the hamstring muscle again and was on the Disabled List from June 27 to July 19. His first major league hit was a game-tying home run off Milt Wilcox of Detroit, May 15, 1983.

Single. Hobbies-collecting coins, hunting. Father, Art Sheridan, pitched in Brooklyn Dodgers organization, 1952-56.
